

Hello, I'm

Albion Gould

CRAFT BLOGGER
AND TRAVEL WRITER

Let's work together!

Having moved all over the world too many times, crafting has been the one constant in my life. From needlework and yarn crafts to cutting machines and painted projects, there's nothing I won't try. My projects range from holiday fun to geeky fandoms to sweet florals to travel-related goodness. My tutorials are easy to read, fun to make, and accessible.
